

Lo, the Eastertide Is Here

Frederick L. Hosmer, 1914, alt.

William Billings, 1778

♩. = c. 72

1. Lo, the Eas - ter - tide is here,
2. Sea - sons come and sea - sons go.
3. And for this we joy - ful raise

3

Fes - ti - val of hope and cheer!
Time moves on in cease - less flow;
Eas - ter songs of joy and praise:

5

At the South Wind's ge - nial breath
But with - in our be - ing hides
In the Love which holds all power

7

Na - ture wakes from seem - ing death.
That which through all change a - bides.
Shines Life's glo - ry ev - er - more.