

ELGIN. 10.10.10.10.

C minor. George Sandys, from Paraphrase of Ecclesiastes III.

Dan Harper, 2010.

1. Lo, all things have their times, by God de - creed In nat - ure's chan - ges; all things which pro - ceed

2. A time to plant, t'up - root; to kill, to cure: A time to bat - ter down, time to im - mure;

3. To scat - ter stones, to gath - er them a - gain: A time t'em - brace, em - bra - ces to re - frain:

4. A time to speak, from speak - ing to sur - cease: A time for love, for hate; for war for peace.

The first system of the musical score consists of four staves. The top staff is the vocal line, and the bottom three staves are the piano accompaniment. The music is in C minor and 4/4 time. The lyrics are numbered 1 through 4, corresponding to the four staves of the system.

From man's in - ten - tions un - der the vast sky. A time when to be born, a time to die:

A time of laugh - ter, and a time to — turn Our smiles to tears: a time to dance, to mourn:

A time to get, to lose; to save, to — spend: To tear a - sun - der, and the torn to mend:

What good can hu - man in - dus - try ob - tain, When all things are so change a - ble and vain?

The second system of the musical score consists of four staves. The top staff is the vocal line, and the bottom three staves are the piano accompaniment. The music is in C minor and 4/4 time. The lyrics are numbered 1 through 4, corresponding to the four staves of the system.