

VERDANT GROVES. P.M.

E minor. Shaker hymn, c. 1813.

Shaker tune, c. 1813.
Adapt. & arr., Dan Harper, 2011.

O, here we walk in verdant groves, Where lies fair are growing, Here is love and sweet repose, and gentle rivers flowing, gentle rivers

O, here we walk in verdant groves, Where lies fair are growing, Here is love and sweet repose, and gentle rivers flowing, gentle rivers

O, here we walk in verdant groves, Where lies fair are growing, Here is love and sweet repose, and gentle rivers flowing, gentle rivers

This system contains the first three vocal parts (Soprano, Alto, and Tenor) and the bass line. The music is in E minor, 4/4 time, and consists of 8 measures. The lyrics are: "O, here we walk in verdant groves, Where lies fair are growing, Here is love and sweet repose, and gentle rivers flowing, gentle rivers".

flowing. Lilies fair are growing, Here is love and sweet repose, Gentle rivers flowing.

flowing. Lilies fair are growing, Here is love and sweet repose, Gentle rivers flowing.

flowing. Here we - walk in verdant groves, Lilies fair are growing, Gentle rivers flowing.

This system contains the continuation of the vocal parts and the bass line. It includes repeat signs at the beginning and end of the system. The lyrics are: "flowing. Lilies fair are growing, Here is love and sweet repose, Gentle rivers flowing." and "flowing. Here we - walk in verdant groves, Lilies fair are growing, Gentle rivers flowing."