May be sung with no loss of time.

1. A man named Jai - rus — threw him - self At Je - sus' — feet — one day;

2. "My daugh - ter lies at point of death. Oh, Mas - ter, I pray thee:

3. Be - fore they came to — Jai - rus' — house, She had al - rea - dy died;

4. And Je - sus took the young girl's hand, He said to her, "A - rise."
 5. A - wake, a - rise, re - turn to life, Heed not death's mourn - ful call,

His daugh - ter was — but twelve years old, Yet close to death she — lay.

Come now and lay thy hands on her That heal - éd she may be.

But Je - sus said, "She - is — not — dead. She sleeps and is — a - live."

She came to life, she — had — been healed By love which nev - er dies.
 O - pen your eyes to — heal - ing pow'r, God's love shall wake us all.
