

Now While the Day in Trailing Splendor

Frederick Lucian Hosmer, 1902

Clement C. Scholefield, 1874

1. Now while the day in trail - ing splen - dor Gives
2. Touch thou our eyes, their blind - ness heal - ing, Un -
3. Till sto - ried mar - vel, sign, and to - ken, All

5

way to glo - ries of the night, Thanks - til the com - mon earth and air To pale be - fore the near - er though Of 9

giv - ing to thy name we ren - der, O
our il - lum - ined sight and feel - ing Thy the vast mir - a - cle un - brok - en From 13

Lord of dark - ness and of light!
glo - ry and thy - self de - clare.
hour to hour a - round us wrought.